SELLING ON SUNDAY.

Test of the Law Likely to Be Carried to the General Term. Mr. Harry Standiford, druggiet at the corner of Ninth and F streets northwest, proposes to be the first to test the validity of the Sunday law, and has taken steps to secure an early hearing. Under the action taken by the authorities on the 17th instant secure an early hearing. Under the action taken by the authorities on the 17th instant he was arrested, and yesterday proceeded against in the police court on the charge of violating the act of December, 1884, adjudged guilty, fined $20 or in default to be imprisoned in the workhouse.

Mr. Standiford, through his attorney, Mr. Charles S. Moore, has petitioned for a writ of habcas corpus to secure his discharge from arrest, which will bring the entire matter before the court for a ruling. He states that he is now unlawfully destained of his liberty, and is advised that the commitment is void. By the charter of the late corporation of Washington it was provided that the ordinances passed by the board of aldermen and common council should receive the sanction of the mayor before becoming laws, and after the passage of such ordinances the same were required by law to be sent to the mayor for his approval or disapproval; that the alleged ordinance of November or December, 1864, under which the petitioner was arrested, was void and of no affect, for the reason that the same did not receive the sanction of the mayor, and that it does not appear upon the minutes of the legislative branch of the late corporation of Washington, and that the said ordinance was never sent to the mayor as required by law. Further, that if this act was approved, in so far as it relates to apothecaries, its provisions were repealed, and apothecaries were licensed to soil tobacco and cigars. The petitioner states that he has been in business in this city for the past thirteen years, taken out his license regularly, no objection petitioner states that he has been in business in this city for the past thirteen years, taken out his license regularly, no objection being made, and the District has never sought to enforce any law against him of the kind referred to. He prays that he may be discharged from filegal arrest and given his freedom.

Justice Cox granted the writ, and made it returnable forthwith before Justice Montgomery.

The case will be heard at an early day. Mr George W. Cochran, tobaccoulst, will also carry his case up on appeal.

New District Building. The officials at the District buildings yesterday were consulting the plans for the yesterday were consulting the plans for the proposed new building with reference to the selection of their rooms in the same. The plans seemed to be satisfactory to nearly all of them, as it puts the various offices under each department together. Each commissioner has a private room, as has also Secretary Tindall. A board room for the commissioners is also provided for. As soon as the plans are adopted Mr. Smith proposes to begin immediately the work of ditting up the building.

ing a final tribute of respect to the late James H. Marr, chief clerk to the first assistant postmaster general, and such an out pour of people demonstrated the high esteem held for the deceased, and great regard entertained for him. The postoffice was not only represented by the committee of fifty-seven, but many other clerks were present, and it had the appearance of the greater portion of the department being in attendance.

Requiem high mass was celebrated, a son of the deceased, Rev. J. D. Marr, of Baitimore, being the celebrant, with Rev. Paul Griffith deacon and Rev. Father Kervick subdescen. The following priests occupied seats within the altar: Mgr. McManus, Rev. Father Whelan, and Father Donohue, of Baltimore; Rev. Charles N. Bart, of Maryland; Rev. Father McNally, Rev. Father Walter, Rev. Father McGee, and Rev. Father Ryan, of this city.

Messrs. John E. McLeran, James H. McLeran, F. A. Le Merie, Eugene P. Le Merie, and Fred. T. Marr, all grandsons of the deceased, were the pallbearers.

The music was furnished by the regular choir of the church. The solo, "Free as a Bird," &c., was sung by Mr. Athur Delavelgue, Rev. Father Ryan delivered a brief enlogy upon the life and character of the deceased at the close of the services.

At the conclusion of the religious services the remains were taken to Mount Olivet for burial.

THE PUNERAL OF THE LATE ELISIA PAYNE

rhe function of the Late elisha payer palelys, formerly a prominent minister of the M. E. Church, and latterly a member of the bar of the District, took place yesterday morning. The services were begun at 315 Fourand a half street, late the residence of the deceased, where Rev. M. L. Hawley offered a short prayer, and at 10 o'clock the remains were borne to the Metropolitan M. E. Church. The pallbearers were Revs. J. D. Still and M. L. Hawley, Messrs. J. H. Fant, J. W. Barker, Warren Choate, S. J. Fague, Thomas F. Miller, and James Croggon. The services at the church were in charge of Rev. Dr. Newman, the pastor, and in the pulpit were Revs. W. H. Chapman, of Union; J. N. Davis, of Baldwin Memorial; J. McK. Retliy, presiding elder, and W. C. Mullen. The lessons were read by W. H. Chapman, after which Revs. W. H. Chapman, J. W. Davis, J. A. Newman, and Dr. Reiliey all spoke in high terms of the character of the deceased. The remains were taken to Baltimore for interment at Mount Olivet.

We have just opened another hundred pieces of Beautiful French Sateens (Freres Koechlin's) which, if anything, surpass in beauty of finish and designs any yet shown by us. Our choicest patterns are not to be found elsewhere in this city. The newest come in Heliotrope, Coachman's Drab, New Tan, Golden Olive, New Plum, and Lizard Green Ground Colors, with neat, high-colored designs. Nearest approach to the French Foulard Silks yet shown. The cream and ecru grounds, with the small pink, blue, and black figures, are hardly distinguishable from the China Silks. Unusually large assortment of black, with small white and lavender designs. We have all the plain shades

Our price for either is 25 cents per yard. We have placed the entire stock of French Sateens on a long center table in our spacious basement, in order that customers can the more readily make selections.

REPAIRING PROMPTLY DONE.

THE SAME TO YOU, SIR: Despite the disagrecable weather business has been brisk at OAK HALL, Cor. Tenth and F Streets.

Scores of customers bought and were satisfied. It will be the same with you if you come. From the irritation and blackguardism shown in the advertisements of some of the protty but very expensive establishments, it is clear they did not fare so well, and while really sorry for them we shall continue to sail you clothing for just about thirty per cent, less than they can, and will allow you to have a little judgment of your own.
